[REDACTED] It was requested that the Des Moines Field Division discreetly spot check the activities of the subject while in Des Moines and ascertain any contacts.

The following investigation was conducted by the writer and Special Agents JOSEPH P. HUGHES, ROY W. MEADOWS, and ALBERT A. AUGUSTINE.

At Des Moines, Iowa

It was ascertained that the train on which the subject was due to arrive in Des Moines on February 14, 1946, would not arrive until 9:00 P.M. on the same day. Accordingly, Train No. 7, on which the subject had transportation, was met in the Chicago, Rock Island Depot in Des Moines, Iowa, at 9:00 P.M. by Agents of the Des Moines Field Division. It was observed that two individuals met the subject and escorted him to the Hotel Fort Des Moines, where the subject had reservations. It was later ascertained that these individuals were one CHARLES F. RAMSON and one JAMES WALLACE. The contacts were established at the Hotel Fort Des Moines, and it was ascertained during the time the subject was in attendance at the Eighth Annual National Farm Institute which was in session at the Hotel Fort Des Moines from February 15 to February 16, 1946. He did not contact any other acquaintances other than those made in the course of events at the Farm Institute. It was also ascertained that he made no telephone calls nor did he receive any, other than one from the local press temporary office at the Hotel for the convention, and one from Mr. WISEMAN of the W.O.W. Broadcasting Station at Omaha, Nebraska, who was present at the Farm Institute and was interested in knowing if the subject could appear for a broadcast over W.O.W. in Omaha, Nebraska. The subject was seen during the Farm Institute in the company of CHARLES RAMSON, the individual who had accompanied him from the train to the hotel.

The subject registered as ANATOLI YAKOVLEV of 7 East 61st Street, New York, New York. It was ascertained the subject was originally scheduled to interpret a speech which was to be made by S. SHUNDENKO, Staff of the Consulate General, U.S.S.R., New York City. SHUNDENKO did not appear and his hotel reservation was cancelled.

YAKOVLEV departed from Des Moines, Iowa, on February 16, 1946, at 11:30 P.M. Subject had reservations on the Chicago, Rock Island Railroad which was due to arrive in Chicago, Illinois, at the LaSalle Street Station at 7:25 A.M., February 17, 1946. He was scheduled to leave Chicago, Illinois, at 5:30 P.M., February 17, 1946, via Pennsylvania Railroad, arriving New York City at 12:40 P.M., February 18, 1946, at the Pennsylvania Station. The Chicago Field Division was advised by teletype and furnished the information as contained in the New York City teletype to the Des Moines Field Division and requested to discreetly spot check the subject's activities while in Chicago and ascertain contacts. They were also requested to advise New York City of the subject's departure for New York City. New York City was also advised of the foregoing by teletype.

On February 20, 1946, inasmuch as it had been ascertained that the subject's reservations at the Hotel Fort Des Moines had been made by the Convention Bureau of the Chamber of Commerce of Des Moines, Iowa, ARTHUR BRAYTON, secretary of the said Bureau was contacted and the following information was secured.

BRAYTON advised that Mr. KIRK FOX of Meredith Publishing Company in Des Moines, Iowa, when recently in New York City, had visited the office of the Consulate General of the U.S.S.R. in New York City, and made arrangements for S. SHVADENKO to appear at the National Farm Institute in Des Moines, Iowa, and address the Institute. YAKOVLEV was to accompany him as an interpreter. Mr. BRAYTON advised that the correspondence relative to the reservations of rooms at the Hotel Fort Des Moines was conducted by V. KAZANIEV, Acting Consulate General of the U.S.S.R., New York City, and Miss LEONA SAON of the Agricultural Committee of American Soviet Friendship in New York City.
